

Wisconsin's no call list must not be weakened by banks or any other group that doesn't care about the nuisance of an unwanted phone call to a private residence.